Telephone Bidding Registration

Telephone bids are to be executed by the Santa Fe Art Auction up to but not exceeding the amount or amounts specified below. I understand that in order to place telephone bids I must complete and return this form, but that I need not specify the top limit of bid below. I further understand that each bid is per lot, as indicated, and all bids will be executed and accepted subject to the Terms and Conditions of Sale. I understand that a buyer's premium in the amount stated in paragraph 3 of the Terms and Conditions of Sale, together with all applicable taxes, will be added to the gavel price as part of the total purchase price.

Absentee Bidding Registration

Absentee Bids are executed alternately in competition with the registered online bidders. It is possible, due to variations in bidding patterns, that a lot may be won by the online audience for the same amount authorized by an absentee bidder. A (+) sign to the right of the bid amount will authorize the absentee bidder to bid one additional bid. In the event of identical bids, the first bid received will take precedence.

Arranging Payment

In order to avoid delays in receiving purchases, buyers are requested to make payment arrangements or supply credit references in advance of the sale date. Purchases cannot leave our premises until checks have been cleared. All payment will be cash, check, Visa, MasterCard, American Express or wire transfer.

Note

Please note that the execution of written and telephone bids is offered as an additional service for no extra charge, and at the bidder's risk. It is undertaken subject to Santa Fe Art Auction's other commitments at the time of the auction. Santa Fe Art Auction therefore cannot accept liability for failure to place such bids, whether through negligence or otherwise.
