The image shows a screenshot of an email notification from Maynards Fine Art & Antiques. At the top is the Maynards logo with 'SINCE 1902' underneath. Below the logo is the text 'You're Approved to Bid with Us!' followed by a large grey arrow pointing to the left. To the left of the main text is a small square image of a painting depicting a person in a white shirt and purple pants. The main text reads: 'Hi Boer, Your auction registration for Maynards Fine Art & Antiques is approved. You can start placing bids at any time.' Below this is the auction title 'Antiques, International & Asian Art Auction' in blue, followed by the date '12/11/19' and time '11:00 AM PST'. A black button with white text says 'VIEW CATALOG'. The final paragraph states: 'You have been assigned paddle #3446 for this auction. Your bid limit is CAD50000. Click here to ask the auction house for a bid limit increase.' At the bottom, it says: 'If you have questions for Maynards Fine Art & Antiques, contact the sale administrator.'

Bid Increments

The minimum amount a bid must be raised each time in order to place a bid. It is pre-determined based on the current winning bid.

Or by selecting a “Maximum Bid”

Maximum Bid

Your bid will increase as necessary to ensure you remain the highest bidder until the maximum you placed is exceeded.

The screenshot displays the Maynards website interface for an auction. At the top, the Maynards logo is on the left, and navigation links for Auctions, Appraisals, Highlights, News, and Contact Us are in the center. On the right, there are icons for Bid Now, Buy Now, and Login, along with search and help icons. The main content area features a painting of a mountain landscape with a river and horses. To the right of the painting, the auction details for Lot 16 are shown: 'Peter Maxwell Ewart, Canadian (1918-2001), Athabasca River Valley, Oil On Board, 18 X 24 In. (45.7 X 61 Cm) (Unframed)'. Below the title is a 'View Catalogue' link. A bidding form includes a 'Your max bid' input field and a 'LEAVE BID' button, with a large grey arrow pointing to the button. The auction details also include an estimate of CAD1,500 - CAD2,000, a current bid of $1,000 (0 bids), the date and time (June 9, 2020, 12:00 PM PST), the location (Richmond, BC, CA), a 'Request more information' link, an 'Add to calendar' button, and a 'Register to bid' link. The bottom left corner shows 'Item Overview' and an upward arrow.
